[OFF CAMERA CONVERSATION]

INTERVIEWER: When Judge Mathis said you were now married, tell me about your first kiss.

CHAD: You know later, when we get to the room. (LAUGHS) You know we had, you know, our parents were there and children we there so had to give a nice romantic kiss. We did something nice. But she knew later, it's gonna be all player player. (LAUGHS)

ANNIE: Oh, was that the way it was? Mm-hm. (LAUGHS)

INTERVIEWER: Annie, how did it feel when you heard the words Mr and Mrs. Chad O'Neal?

ANNIE: Uh, um, let's see. When I, when they said Mr. and Mrs. Chad O'Neal and it was like, turn to the audience for the first time as, it was like a, I don't know. I don't know, that's a hard, hard one to describe. It was like a, relief and um, I don't know if it was a relief of this, the wedding and everything being put together and it's finally over or a relief of, I don't have to have, put up with the attitude of the last 2 weeks before we got married where he turned into Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde or, I don't know. It was just like a, you know, a big breath of fresh air and, and people always ask, like, do you feel different, and I, I'd have to say, if there's any difference, it's definitely a better feeling, like, uh, um, I think we feel more of like a family unit.

I mean, we've always been a family of course, but just more of like, this is of real, you know, um. It's even weird sometimes to say like when he always says my wife, my wife. And he's always said that. You know, so, is it different? It's definitely better, it's definitely, um, we feel, I, I think that we feel like closer and, uh, we share a lot more. A lot, a lot is different, I guess.

INTERVIEWER: What was going through your head after it was all over?

CHAD: The only thing that was going through my head is that, uh, I was married. And it was a good feeling. It was a feeling that was supposed to be done. Yeah, I was happy. She was happy. The baby was happy. And, and being the type of man that I am, as long as the family's happy, I'm happy. The reason why I was cracking myself up back there because I, I can remember when she first moved in, I was a bachelor and I had Superman emblem all over the place, all over the place.

So one day, she called me on the phone and said, I'm gonna change your room up a little bit so I'm just being nice. I say, OK, so when I came home, all my Superman bedspread was gone, my Superman pillow sheets, my Superman toilet paper, everything was gone and she made the house more family orientated. As you can see, she did a beautiful job.

ANNIE: He fixed that, right? He fixed that right, right at the end, fixed it.

CHAD: Well, all of my Superman stuff was gone. She just took it.

ANNIE: That is so not true.

CHAD: (TALKS OVER) She took my Superman stuff and she had it outside for the for the, for the people to come pick it up.

ANNIE: That is so not true!
